ORECK®
SIMPLY POWERFUL.

GET “FIVE STAR” CLEAN ANYWHERE IN THE HOUSE. GUARANTEED!

Anything anybody could ask of a canister vacuum, the new Oreck Quest™ Pro delivers in super-abundance. That's because every feature of the Quest Pro is designed with performance, ease-of-use and maximum cleanability in mind. It provides a phenomenal amount of punch — 1500 watts of cleaning power. Yet it's remarkably quiet. Thanks to its variable suction control, the precise amount of suction is available for every conceivable need — whether it's cleaning lamp shades or wall to wall carpeting.

The new Oreck Quest Pro comes with a complete set of onboard tools, hard floor head and a powered floor head.

The power nozzle adjusts for different carpet pile heights. HEPA filtration and disposable filter bags come standard.

Your customers will also appreciate how highly maneuverable and versatile it is.

Four 360° pivoting casters allow it to move easily on all floor surfaces. It'll glide from room to room, and the wrap around bumper guard will prevent the unit from marring walls, doorways and furnishings.

The 36" extension wand has six height settings.

The Quest Pro also features a 6-foot hose, dusting brush and a crevice tool. Easy step pedal controls the power, power head brushroll, cordwinder, carpet height adjustment, and wand release. And, of course, there is a convenient carry handle.

There's also a separate motor in the power head. Its job is to drive the extra-long pile lifting roller brush so that it can comb and groom carpet fibers and help loosen dirt.

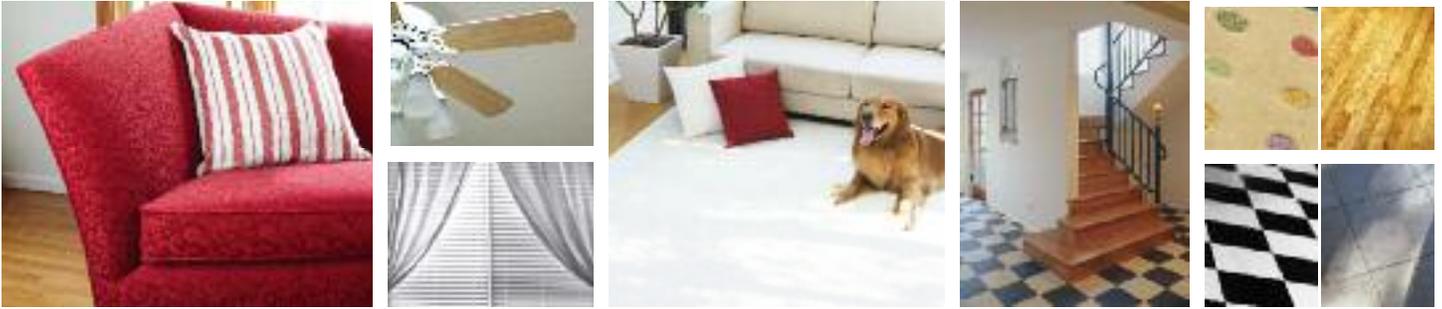

The new full-featured Oreck Quest Pro canister vacuum has been obsessively worked and reworked and thought out to the nth degree. For people who want the best in a canister vacuum, they'll want the new Oreck Quest Pro.

It's got it all: power, performance and price.
